key terms

FIRST RESPONDER
Any authority or organisation that is authorised to refer a potential victim of modern slavery into the National Referral Mechanism, including police, certain parts of the Home Office and some charities.

REASONABLE GROUNDS DECISION
The initial decision indicating whether or not the authorities believe that individual to be a potential survivor of modern slavery

CONCLUSIVE GROUNDS DECISION
The final decision that determines whether that potential survivor is recognised as a survivor of modern slavery.

RECOVERY NEEDS ASSESSMENT
Following a positive Conclusive Grounds Decision, this assessment enables support workers to consider whether a victim has any ongoing recovery needs arising from their modern slavery experiences.
