Purpose of the role

This service is funded for a minimum of 45 days or up until the point that a conclusive ground decision is made. Please refer to the survivor journey below to see the process.

In addition to this support, Unseen also delivers a program of activities for survivors to access to promote wellbeing, build peer relationships, increase self-confidence, and access new opportunities. These activities are delivered in the community and at both safehouses each month.

Unseen are committed to further developing and embedding our Survivor Involvement Forums into our frontline operations. We run monthly forums where survivors can come together to raise questions and suggest new ideas for service delivery and feed into organization activity. There is also regular opportunity for survivors to input into policy and research projects, and work with partner organisations to improve support for potential victims and survivors. Information regarding these opportunities are shared via our monthly survivor newsletter.
